

The play begins with a Storyteller who is on their way to Lila's Firework Festival.

The storyteller is lost.

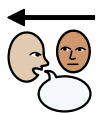

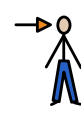

They ask the audience to help them find the festival.

The Storyteller introduces Lila's story.

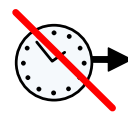

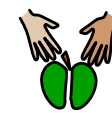

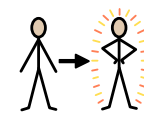

Lila wanted to be a Firework Maker like her dad.

Lila asked her dad if she could be a Firework Maker.

 Lila's
  dad
  said he doesn't think
  girls should make fireworks.

 Lila's
  dad
  wouldn't share
  the secret
  of how to become

 a Firework Maker
  with Lila.

 Lila
  had two best friends
  who both lived at the King's

Palace.

 Lila's
  best friends
  were a boy called Chulak
  and his elephant called Hamlet.

 Chulak could be a firework maker because he is a boy.

 Lila asked Chulak to speak to her dad and find out the secret to being a Firework Maker.

 Lila's Dad told Chulak the secret.

 Chulak told Lila that to become a Firework Maker she would have to get a gift from the fire god.

 The fire god was called Razvani

 Lila's
  Dad
  snuck
  C
 +
  H out of the palace
 to help Lila.

 +
  H set off to get the magical
  water

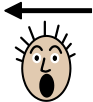

+
  Lila
  traveled
 to
  R Razvani's mountain.

 +
  H
  went as fast
 they could.

 Lila
  traveled across fields
 and over hills

 Lila
  befriended some
  River
  Pirates
 to help her sail

 upstream

 and scared away a tiger who stood in her path.

 Lila travelled far, to the top of the mountain.

 The mountain was very hot.

 Lila met Razvani and asked for a gift which will make her into a Firework Maker.

 Razvani said they cannot give Lila the gift, until she brings the three gifts all Firework Makers must bring to the mountain.

Lila

did not know

to bring gifts.

Razvani

that

Lila

must show

she is a

Firework

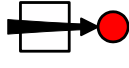

Maker

by walking

across

hot coals.

Meanwhile

+

met

The

Goddess

of the Lake.

The

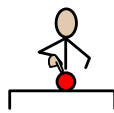

Goddess

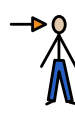

asked

Chulak

what he needed.

Chulak

couldn't

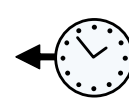

speak

because the Goddess

was so beautiful.

 Hamlet told the Goddess that Lila is in trouble.

 The Goddess of the Lake gave Hamlet the water to help his friend in danger.

 Chulak climbed onto Hamlet's back and they traveled to help Lila.

 Chulak and Hamlet got to the mountain just in time as Lila felt the hot coals on her feet.

 Lila drank the magical water and could walk over the flames without feeling anything.

 But Razvani vanished and Lila thought I'll never be a Firework Maker now'.

 Lila was sad.

 Hamlet took Lila and Chulak home.

 The King had thrown Lila's Dad in prison for helping Hamlet and Chulak escape the Palace.

Lila

was confused.

She

didn't take the

3 gifts

to

R

Razvani

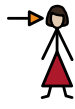

so

how could

she

be a

firework

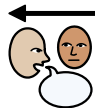

maker?

Lila's

the

gifts

are not things

you can hold

in your hand

or wrap

box.

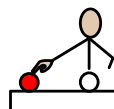

They

are important

things

that are

deep

inside

you.

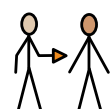

Things

that

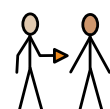

make

you

you

are.

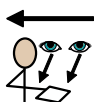

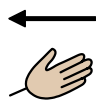

The  gifts  were  talent,  courage, and  friendship.

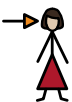

Lila  showed  talent by  making  all of  those  magical  fireworks that  won  her the  competition

Lila  showed  courage by  going  on a  hard and  daunting journey.

Lila  showed  strong  friendship  when  Chulak and  Hamlet  helped her  out, by being  kind and  caring.

The final gift from Razvani to Lila was wisdom.

Lila had everything she needed inside of her to become who she wanted to be.

With talent, courage, friendship and wisdom, Lila became a Firework Maker.

Now the Storyteller is going to Lila's Firework Festival.
